

#GLADEOGRAPHIX PRESENTS EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN

EMTs respond to emergency calls, perform medical services and transport patients to medical facilities.

THE PERSUADER
THE PEOPLE PERSON
THE PROBLEM SOLVER
THE BUILDER

EDUCATION NEEDED

- + High School Diploma and CPR certification
- + Training & Certification
  - National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians
    - o EMT-Basic
    - o EMT-Intermediate
    - o Paramedic

*Some states have their own certification programs and use different titles

TYPES OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES

- + 911 Service
Integrated into fire departments and respond to emergencies
- + Transfer Service
Transfers patients between hospitals and other care facilities

HOW TO LAND YOUR 1ST JOB

120+ HOURS

of ride outs or precepting for EMT-B's is required.

- o Ask your instructors for leads and connections.
- o Respond to job postings on job websites.

$19,900 Starting Salary
$30,700 Mid-Career Salary

THINGS TO DO IN HIGH SCHOOL

- Take Anatomy and Biology class
- Take EMS/EMT program, if possible

SKILLS NEEDED

- Physical strength
- Communication skills
- Stress management
- Empathy and compassion
- Problem solving skills
- Listening skills
- Documentation skills

"Don't be afraid to ask questions. You will always work under a supervisor and they are there to assist you on those tough calls." Nidya Lopez, EMT

To learn more about this career

WWW. GLADEO .org

Designed by Danny Shin